We have had a frustrating experience with our previous staffing agency over the last year or so; however, we have kept you at the forefront of our search for an agency that will provide us with the support that our home needs. "I truly appreciate the effort that the staff at Home Affinity has put forth to deliver us a home that we can call home. The office staff was responsive, sympathetic, and caring, they also took the time to explain all the intricacies of the home buying process and to go over the details of the contracts and disclosures with us." "We loved the fact that we did not have to hire a decorator or have someone fluff up our house to make it nicer. My husband and I found the house we had been looking at via On Site Décor. The owner was extremely courteous and helpful. We were able to bring our old furniture and incorporate it
